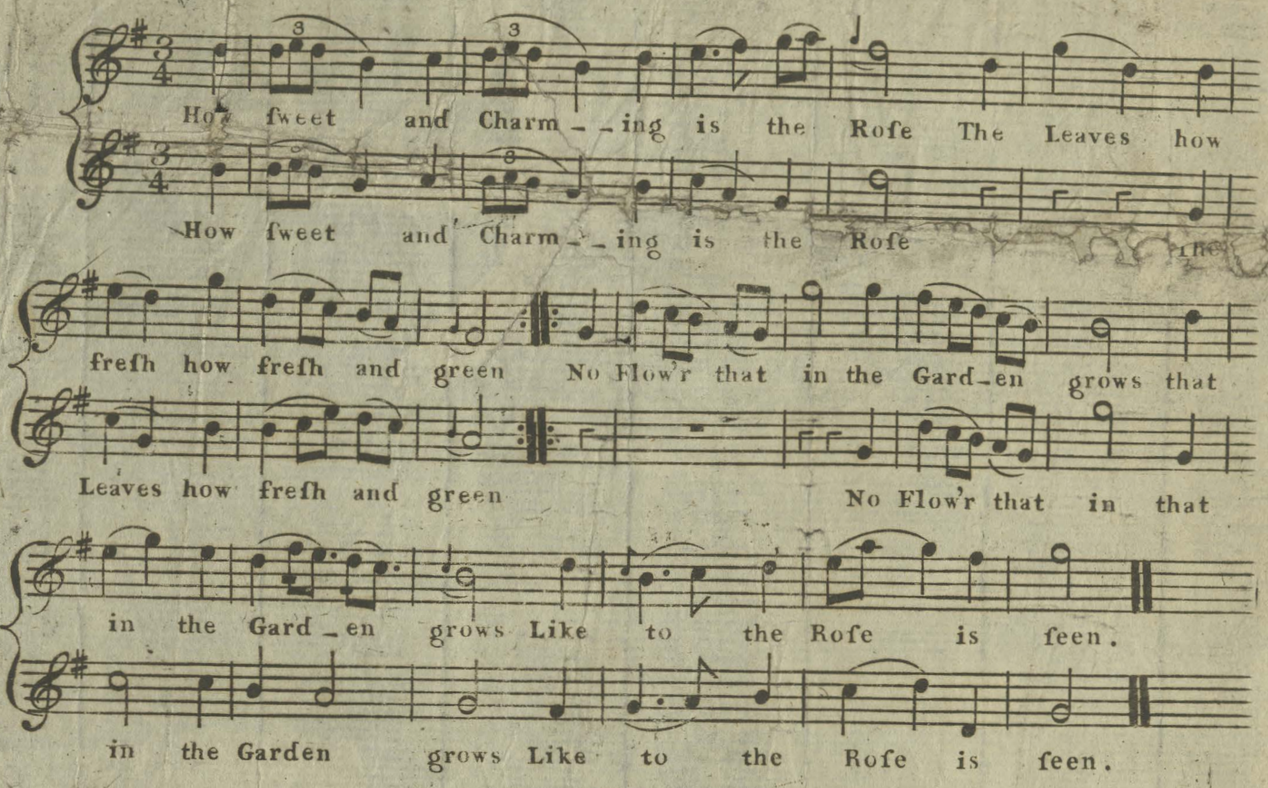
146800-1001

Royal Academy of Music Library

THE ROSE.

A two Part Song. for two Ger: Flutes, two Violins, or two Guittars.



How ſweet and Charm_ing is the Roſe The Leaves how How ſweet and Charm_ing is the Roſe freſh how freſh and green No Flow'r that in the Gard_en grows that Leaves how freſh and green No Flow'r that in that in the Gard_en grows Like to the Roſe is ſeen.
in the Garden grows Like to the Roſe is ſeen.

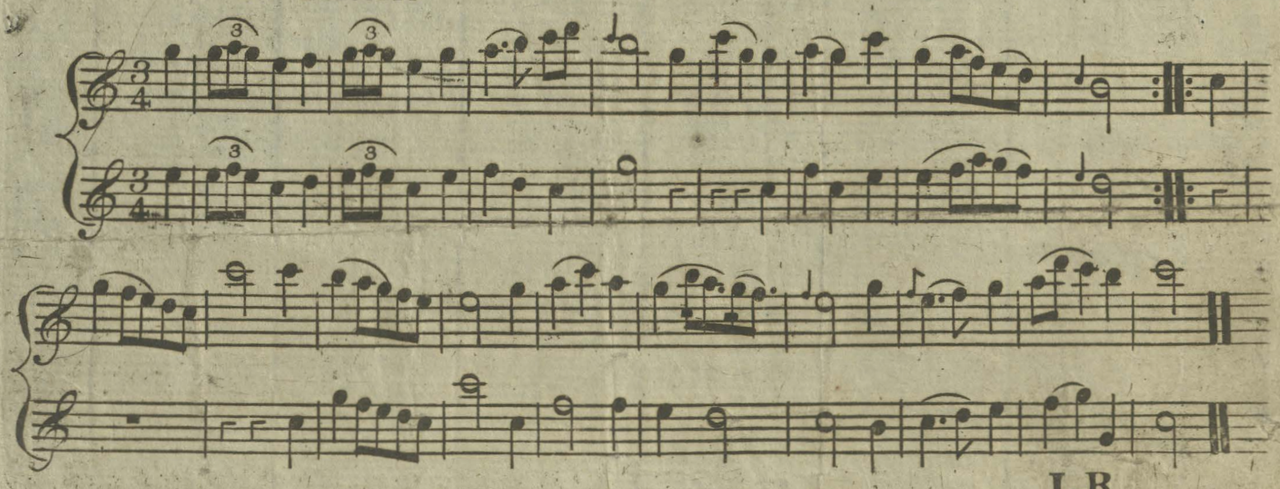
(2)

The Roſe is plac'd above the reſt
The top of all the Tree
Roſe is the Flow'r eſteemed beſt
Roſe is the Flow'r for me.

(3)

The Roſe when in the Noſegay ty'd
Hath far the ſweeteſt ſmeel
Then all the other Flow'rs beſide
The Roſe does all excell.

For two Guittars



I.R

John Rutherford
1771-84

Royal Academy of Music Library